EVENT

From November 22 to 25 at Tokyo's Hibiya Park, seafood exhibitors and chefs from all over Japan will set up stalls selling seafood products.

You'll be able to taste, enjoy and have some incredible food experiences. All types of cooked and raw fish will be available to accommodate all tastes. Entertainment includes stage performances and presentations.

On November 25, the festival will close with the Fish-1 Grand Prix, a contest in which the best product will be chosen.

This event is expected to draw more than 140,000 attendees over four days.
